

Quiz #8

By Prateek Vijayavargia

1. This company was founded in 1919 by Mahashay Chuni Lal as a small shop in Sialkot. It has since grown in popularity all over India, and exports its products to several countries. After the partition of India, the son of the founder, shifted to Delhi and opened up his shop at Delhi. Which company?
2. Which author's latest book is titled – "The 3 Mistakes of My Life"?
3. Identify this bird. (Hint: It has a very special ability)

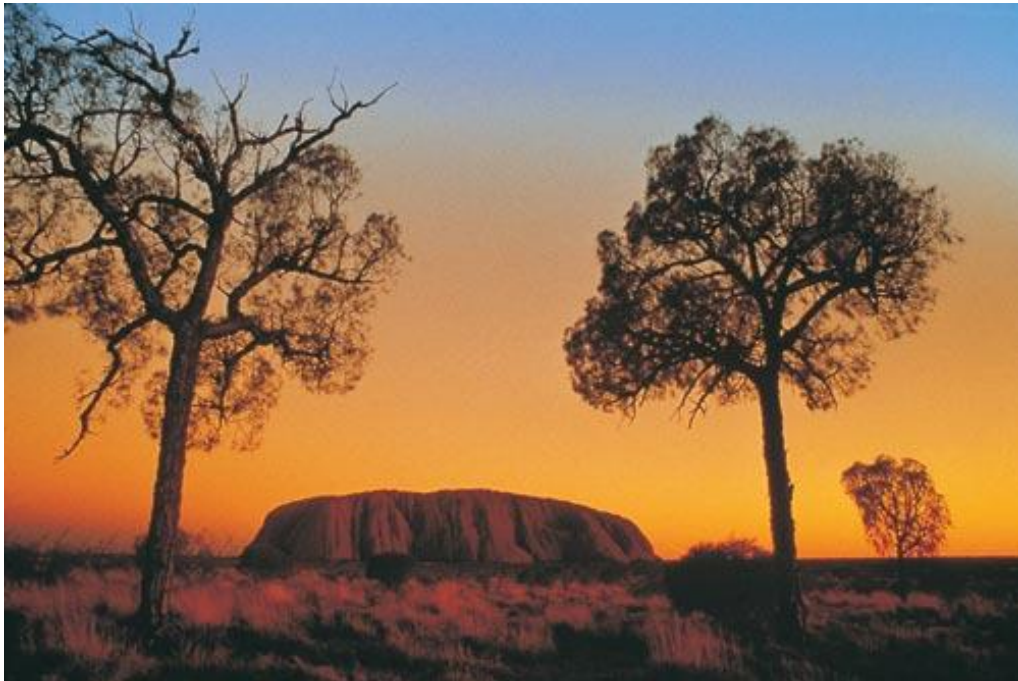

4. It was founded by Chad Hurley, Steve Chen and Javed Karim, who were all early employees of PayPal. What?
5. Connect him to the World of Sports.

6. He was born in Chennai in 1953. He reached the quarterfinals at Wimbledon and the US Open in 1973. He has beaten John McEnroe, Bjorn Borg and Rod Laver once each, and Jimmy Connors 5 times. Who is he?
7. Which company's tagline is "Leading Innovation"?
8. On March 27, 1973, a young Indian woman named Sasheen Littlefeather (in pic) took the stage during the Academy Awards and made a speech on someone's behalf. Put Fundaez.

9. Identify this natural structure.

10. Why are the last words of the modern world's greatest scientist, Albert Einstein not known?